FURTHER EVIDENCE OF SKILL.

A Pea Successfully Extracted from the Ear, after having been imbedded against the Drum of the Ear for Eight Months.

PORTLAND, April 6 1872.

To the Public
I hereby certify to the skill of Dr Aborn in the treatment of my son In August last he got a large pea into his ear Physicians were applied to without avail The pea soon caused inflammation, and a fungus growth spread over the pea and filled up the entire ear, and of late a bloody discharge oozed from the ear and I became greatly alarmed about his perilous condition. After satisfying myself that Dr Aborn was a skillful surgeon in all such cases I applied to him, on Wednesday last, with my son, and placed him under his care He [illegible] the fungus growth, so as to make a passage back to the pea, and on the fourth day he succeeded in removing all the fungus growth and disease of the ear Then by the aid of his scientific instruments we could plainly see the pea embedded against the drum of the ear. The pea was removed the same evening, without pain The hearing in that ear, which was destroyed, is now, by his treatment, restored so that he can hear a watch tick Only for the timely aid of the skill of Dr Aborn I feel satisfied that my son would have lost his life. It was through the card of Capt Pease that I applied to Dr Aborn, so I give this card to the public with the view that it may be the means of benefiting some one.

MONDAY MORNING APRIL 1[illegible] 1872

A Game of Mountebanks

[illegible] the Herald [illegible] the statement [illegible] the Republican party [illegible] placed the [illegible] commerce of the Wallamet Valley in [illegible] hands of one man [illegible] him [illegible] the possession [illegible]. Here we have assertions of a most extraordinary nature. That description [illegible] which lacks a truth could hardly [illegible].

The one man alluded to has [illegible] right or franchise in this State that was given him by the Republican party. The Herald [illegible] with the disingenuousness that is usual with it, denounces the doctrine of "vested rights" of corporations as an odious thing of Republican invention, oppressive to the people and dangerous to the State. Yet this doctrine is the doctrine of the Constitution of Oregon, an instrument that was framed by Democrats and ratified by Democratic votes. The Herald, dwelling on this subject with pig headed insistence, talks as if "vested rights" were a recent invention and had their origin with the Republican party, when in point of fact "vested rights" in this State have their origin in the Constitution and are a part of that instrument. We are, in fact, indebted to the Constitution and its Democratic makers for the very term "vested corporate rights." It is found nowhere else. Now what is the Democratic party as represented by its organ trying to do? It simply undertakes to condemn us because we say that the Constitution is the supreme law. A Democratic organ is furious because we choose to respect and obey a Constitution that owes its parentage to the Democratic party.

What right or franchise has the Republican party in this State bestowed upon the "one man" to whom the Herald refers? It has given him nothing, and can give him nothing. His railroad franchise on the east side of the valley was given him by a Democratic Legislature. The franchise on the west side was purchased by him from the Company to whom it was granted by Congress. As to transportation on the Wallamet river, he has no right or power which has not always been possessed by others, as the P. T. Co. on the Wallamet, or the O. S. N. Co., on the Columbia. The Republican party has given him nothing there. It has placed nothing in his hands. But the Democratic party has placed much in his hands. We shall show how.

First, a Democratic Legislature, in 1868, gave him the land grant for the east side railroad, though the west side people claimed that the grant had already been given them by a former (Republican) Legislature. Second, in 1870 a Democratic Legislature refused to permit the P. T. Co., then navigating the Wallamet, to compete for the subsidy for the Canal and Locks at the Wallamet Falls, but gave it to another Company, because that other Company was mainly Democratic, and added to the subsidy a gift or bonus of $75,000, over and above the offer of the P. T. Co. The latter Company, in consequence, were forced to sell out their line. They could not run against the railroad on the one hand and the heavily subsidized Locks Company on the other. Hence their line passed into the same hands that controlled the railroad. And this is just how it happens that "the commerce of the Wallamet Valley is now in the hands of one man." Democratic legislation placed it there. The Republicans have done nothing whatever to contribute to that end. Not a measure, not an act of theirs can be specified, which has tended in the smallest degree to bring affairs to the condition of which the Herald complains. Had the Democratic Legislature of 1870 done its duty, transportation on the Wallamet river would have remained in the hands of a company which would have continued to compete with the railroads. The State, besides, would have saved the sum of $75,000, which was thrown away upon favorites of the Democratic party.

Nor does the Republican party "defend" the "one man" in the "possession of his right,"—a right which has been given to him by Democratic party legislation and guaranteed to him by a Constitution of Democratic creation. He is able—as any man who has property rights under the Constitution and laws is able—to "defend" his own rights. The Republican party says nothing on these subjects, because nothing it or any other party may say can in any way affect them. This journal speaks out, however, because it has long had a habit of exposing and exploding Democratic clap-traps and deceptions.

It is a uniform custom with the Democratic party in this State to make their political campaigns on shams and pretenses. In 1866 the cry of the campaign was for taxation of United States bonds. Such men as Grover and Burnett, claiming to be lawyers, joined in this cry and kept it up till election day. The duplicity and folly of the thing were completely exposed, as the duplicity and folly of the Herald in this cry about transportation have been exposed now. The bonds could not be taxed, as every well-informed person knew. After the election of 1866 this "great question of justice to the people" was never heard of in Oregon. In 1868 the party of humbugs set up a howl about the Chinaman. It was the staple commodity of the canvass. Again their utter folly was exposed. They got the Legislature, however, yet they did nothing to check Chinese immigration or to arrest the competition of Chinese labor. But they set up the excuse that a Radical Governor was against them, and in 1870 again came before the people with the old cry against the Chinese. They got the Legislature again and the Governor with it, but, as every sensible person had foretold, they did nothing whatever to "protect the interests of white labor." In the same campaign they made a fierce assault on the Republicans for their action in regard to the Humboldt railroad. Yet when their Legislature assembled they expressly sanctioned the measure they had denounced so bitterly, and compelled their candidate for the Senate before they would elect him to pledge himself to support it.

And now again comes this same party with more of its false assertions and humbug pretenses. It insists that a matter is at issue in this political contest, which can have nothing to do with any political [illegible] whatever. With the record of its past [illegible] burnt into its forehead, it again assumes its shameless front to try as usual the efficacy of humbugs, pretenses and falsehoods. The issues it is trying to make are as usual [illegible] as [illegible] [illegible]thing whatever [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]ass. They will be in no way [illegible] by the election result how it will. Any other party than the Democratic would be ashamed to rely on such shallow trickery and transparent dupery for success. It is a game of charlatans and mountebanks. Copper counters are their substitute for good honest [illegible].

Nesmithian Campaign Items

Mr Nesmith was the first and principal speaker at the ratification meeting held by the Democracy at this place on the return of the delegates from the Convention at the Dalles.

As a fair illustration of what is said to constitute a good campaign speech, we give the [illegible] points [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

[illegible] history [illegible] the [illegible] bishops in [illegible] [illegible] were tried [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] petition [illegible] King [illegible] from reading his declaration of indulgence in favor of Roman Catholics and Dissenters in the churches, because the same was contrary to an act of Parliament. But the speaker represented it as an arbitrary attempt upon the part of the King to suppress the right of trial by jury, which he said was invented five hundred years before Christ.

The speaker also represented that when James heard the shouts of the people upon the acquittal of the bishops, he was suddenly seized with fear and threw the great seal into the Thames and fled the kingdom, while the fact is that months transpired between the happening of these two events, and the King, instead of fleeing the kingdom when he heard the verdict of the jury, said "So much the worse for them," the bishops.

In comparing the platforms of the two parties, the speaker raised a laugh at the expense of two of his friends and brother delegates, which was probably more enjoyed by the crowd than the two friends. This whisky wreath he hung round their necks as follows: After commenting upon the temperance plank in the Republican platform and objecting that instead of improving the quality of the whisky it elevated the character of the vendor, the speaker apologized for the want of such a plank in the Democratic platform, and said the duty of preparing one had been assigned to his friends Lafayette Mosher and George L. Curry, and they were both so drunk that they forgot it! Upon the subject of Woman's Rights he said the platform contained no plank on this question because it was agreed among the delegates that each one would attend to that matter privately and individually when he got home. [Great laughter.]

In the course of his remarks he very cleverly alluded to his own candidacy for the Senate, and complimented himself at the expense of the ticket he was professing to support. Said he, "The ticket is a good one"—he didn't say a very good one—"and it would have been much better but we are keeping back all the best men to run for the Senate." [Lots of laughter.]

As usual he tried to hit his former friend, Grant, under the fifth rib by stating that the true reading of his famous saying "Let us have peace" was "Let us have a place."

He denounced in unmeasured terms what he was pleased to call the despotism and disregard of law by the Radicals, but was conveniently silent upon the fact of his procuring his friend Montgomery Blair, when Postmaster General, to suppress Democratic papers in Oregon because they presumed to criticise the then "lawyial" Senator Nesmith; nor did he in this or any other connection allude to his own letter to Bush in 1862 proposing to arrest Joe Lane for treason to the "Blood and Bones" government of Abraham Lincoln.

The National Side Show

A very considerable meeting in the interests of the Cincinnati movement is reported at New York. That something of a noise should be made by the "sore heads" there is not surprising. New York is likely to become the center of the whole affair. More support will be obtained for it at that place than anywhere else. This results from the factional differences in the Republican party there. The Republicans of New York have quarreled about public patronage, and whatever one wing of the party does the other endeavors not to do. Reduced to its final elements, the Cooper Institute meeting which was addressed by Senator Trumbull last Friday evening, and of which dispatches that we print to-day give an account, is a complaint on the part of the Greeley wing about the distribution of offices, and an expression of resentment toward the Administration because this clan have not obtained the recognition and patronage to which they deem themselves entitled. This is the inspiration of all their lofty declamation against the use of patronage for party purposes. They wanted to "run" the administration and couldn't. Hence this great meeting and all its declamation. The New York Herald says "they want civil service reform because they are hungering outside," and this appears to be the exact state of the whole matter.

The prominent names at this meeting are the same that were appended to the call for it which appeared about a fortnight ago. We quote again from the New York Herald:

They are, with three or four exceptions, of that school of old line Democrats who bolted with Martin Van Buren and his promising son, our lamented Prince John, and on the free soil platform, against General Cass, the regular Democratic nominee of 1848. They are all bolters, and may expect to repeat in 1872 their successful bolt of 1848; but this time the odds are heavily against them, for the great political revolution commenced in 1848 is now in its accomplishment represented more fully in General Grant than any other living man. Negro suffrage, for instance, is as much his work as negro emancipation was the work of Lincoln. The foundations of this great revolution and pyramid of reconstruction, we say, were laid in 1848 in free soil, but the statue on the capstone of the Fifteenth Amendment will be a statue of General Grant.

It may be expected that if this bolting movement shall have an vitality anywhere it will be in New York, where there is most contention between Republican factions and most dissatisfaction among the [illegible]. It is therefore very probable that the "sore head" element will be very lively and noisy there. This meeting will doubtless be followed up as vigorously as possible, but as it represents no moral forces and no convictions as to principles it cannot obtain a large following. It represents no body among the people. It is simply an effervescent movement of soured and disappointed politicians.

The New York [illegible] is used to report political intelligence correctly. But when it says that the [illegible] [illegible] other bolters of Oregon came together in Convention a few days ago and resolved themselves into a delegation to go to Philadelphia and vote for Grant, it shows that recent political associations have made it amazingly reckless of tr[illegible].

Messrs. Warren and [illegible], candidates for Congress, will speak at the Court House [illegible] this evening. This is the opening debate of the campaign. Give them a good audience.

Mr M. J. Bell has gone to La Grande, Union county, to revive the Mountain Democrat. He will doubtless make a good local paper and we shall be glad to hear of his success.

A letter from Washington dated March 30th states that Senator Corbett's bill to confer citizenship upon the children of British fathers and Indian mothers born in Oregon prior to the treaty of 1846 has been reported from the Judiciary Committee with an amendment in the nature of a substitute providing that all persons born in the tract of country formerly known as the territory of Oregon [illegible] [illegible] the United States [illegible] citizens of the United States [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] State.

The Senate on the 28th March passed Mr [illegible] bill to [illegible] the Congressional [illegible] all [illegible] the people of Oregon [illegible] for members of Congress in June [illegible]. We have not heard of its passage by the House, though no doubt Senator Corbett will if possible secure its passage by that body.

The Farmer (Salem) puts this inquiry: With [illegible] a pound of cheese in our markets, with a very poor quality of butter selling at 50 cents a pound, with wool promising to be 60 cents per pound, would it not be well for our farmers to turn their attention to mixed husbandry and stick to it? We should think so.

OREGON

According to the Catholic Sentinel, there are in the Province of Oregon, consisting of the Arch Diocese of Oregon City, the Diocese of Nesqually and Vancouver Island, and the Vicariates of British Columbia and Idaho, 62 priests, 110 churches and chapels, 18 educational institutions for girls and 13 for boys, and the Catholic population of the Province is about 30,000, including upwards of 20,000 Indians.

The Statesman says it is reported that Isaac W. Brown, better known as "Whisky Brown," was found yesterday hanging to a tree near his cabin. He had been in and around Salem for quite a number of years and for a long time has been living alone on an island about three miles and a half above the city. He has been dissipated for years and it is supposed the deed was committed while under the influence of liquor.

From the Farmer we learn that Mr. Leonard, a practical bridge builder and the gentleman under whose supervision the Oregon & California Railroad bridge at Harrisburg was constructed, expresses a willingness to build a bridge across the Wallamet at Salem, everything complete, including the piling at the west end, for $75,000, and thinks that upon proper plans and estimates it might be completed for even less—say $65,000.

We gather the following, in relation to the wool trade in Marion county, from the Farmer:

"Mr. A. Carey has sold to Captain John F. Miller a number of high grade Merino sheep at $5 a head. A very poor speculation for Mr. Carey at the present high prices of wool. One of our wool growers, who has 1,800 head of sheep, sold his wool clip during the week for fifty six cents per pound—$1,000 being paid down. Mr. Minto has been offered fifty six cents per pound for his wool. He asks sixty cents and will probably get it. He has over 200 fine Merino sheep, the fleeces of which last year averaged [illegible] pounds each clean wool."

First. Because after a careful examination of its principles and present condition [illegible] the opinion expressed by the Hon. Julius L. Clarke, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his letter of December 31st [illegible] [illegible] the Company [illegible] The Life Association deservedly ranks among the prudent, conservative and best managed Life Insurance Organizations in the United States.
Second. Because its Consulting Counsel and Actuary is the Hon. Wm. Barnes, of New York, to whose wise and judicious administration as Insurance Commissioner of that State for [illegible] the Life Insurance Companies are largely indebted for that success which has enabled them to [illegible] [illegible] capital.
Third. Because [illegible] Company [illegible]
Fourth. Because its management is economical. This, in connection with the fact that by investing in the different States it obtains much higher rates of interest than the rates received by Eastern Companies, enables the Association to return [illegible] dividends every year [illegible]

The office of The Daily [illegible]

CAUSE OF EXPLOSION.—In relation to the cause of the recent boiler explosion of the steamer [illegible] we have been informed by Mr Lewis the engineer. Instead of the boiler being in a filthy condition as alleged, it had been carefully cleaned out on the morning of the explosion. Before the fire was started in the furnace, the second gauge cock had been examined and the glass tube indicated that the boiler was two-thirds full of water. The steam gauge had been repaired at the Oregon Iron Works about two months ago. The explosion is thought to have resulted directly from a defect in the boiler on the port side as a small leak had been observed. Not ten minutes before the explosion occurred the engineer had consulted the gauge and found the water all right.

SAILING OF THE AJAX.—The steamship Ajax sailed from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday. Passenger list as follows: Mrs Col West, Jno Watts and family, L M Swift and family, T Mossman, J P Lemart, G Rosley, [illegible] Frayer, Mrs M Warner and 2 children, Maj [illegible] Nilson and clerk, M Collins and family, A Goldsmith, H Appel, E G Crane, [illegible] Cohen, [illegible] Smith, Rev A Myers, F Cassin, James Glover, Thomas Barry, Mrs L P W Quimby, J R Coulter and wife, S Levy, C H Fuller, George Sasser, W H Stearns, E S Poindexter, H M Prayer, D Harvey, M M Knoontze, Mrs Joseph Wilson, H Parker, Mrs M Applegate and child, J K Cline, J T McCabe, S Clein, S Smith, M T La Grange, W J Bates, L Seaman and family.

PRIVATE WATCHMAN.—Since burglaries are of such frequent occurrence in the city we learn that M J Twomey proposes to establish a beat, as a private watchman beyond Fourth street and is receiving numerous signatures for his support and compensation. Citizens residing west of Fourth street feel the imperative necessity of a night watchman, and we doubt not that this proposition of Mr Twomey will receive the approbation of the Police Commissioners. Either it should be one or more policemen ought to be appointed. Taxpayers who assist in the maintenance of the present Metropolitan police force feel that they are entitled to a measure of protection from losses of property sustained, and those very annoying intrusions.

GRAND PICNIC.—The various Odd Fellows Lodges in this city have appointed committees to complete arrangements for the grand picnic to be held in celebration of the fifty third anniversary of the establishment of Odd Fellowship in the United States on the 26th inst. The proposition is to have as many Lodges meet as possible. The picnic will probably be held at Aurora on the line of the Oregon and California Railroad. We learn that the Lodges at Eugene City, Albany, Corvallis and Salem have also appointed Committees. From the extensive preparations that are being made, it is safe to predict that the contemplated picnic will be the grandest ever held in the State.

BLUE BEEF OVER.—Mr W W Spaulding of [illegible] has, we learn, recently purchased a fine drove of fat beef cattle on Link river and has en route for Portland about 150 head. No snow it is reported has fallen during the past winter where they have been pastured, and they are in excellent condition. Lovers of good beef—and there are not a few in this city—can congratulate themselves on the fact that the reign of blue beef promises to be of short duration.

COMPLIMENTARY.—Friend Band pays this compliment to the musicians across the way. The East Portland Brass Band, that accompanied the delegates from Portland to the State Convention discoursed some very sweet music during their stay, and gave to our city quite a lively appearance. In volunteering to play for the soiree given by the pupils of the Academy on Tuesday evening, they did a very kind and benevolent act, and one that was fully appreciated.

CHAMPIONSHIP.—Josh Davis received a letter on Saturday from San Francisco which stated that the [illegible] contest between the "billiardists" McCleary and Gates, for the championship of California, Nevada and Oregon resulted in favor of McCleary. The dispatches announce that the winner in this contest has accepted a challenge from Kraker to play for one thousand eight hundred points.

FOOTPADS.—It would seem that the citizens of Portland are not the only sufferers from thieves and robbers. We learn that as a Mr James Dix who resides upon his farm in Washington county was on his way home from this city last week, he was accosted by two accommodating gentlemen in disguise, and compelled to stand and deliver up [illegible] and watch, amounting to about sixty dollars.

REPRESENTATIVES.—At a meeting of Hassalo Lodge No. 15, I O O F of this city, held on Friday evening, the following persons were chosen Representatives to the Grand Lodge which meets in Salem in May: D L Marshall, A G Walling, J W Whalley, Thos H Crawford, E H Stolte, A N Gamble and O N Denny.

ANNUAL ELECTION.—At the recent annual election of officers for the Hibernian Benevolent Society of Vancouver, the following gentlemen were chosen: President, P O Keane; Vice President, Michael Shea; Recording Secretary, J O Keane; Corresponding Secretary, Patrick Cain; Treasurer, John McMullen.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—L F Grover, the [illegible] "Possum" candidate for Senatorial [illegible], will address the Democratic citizens of Portland, on the beauty and consistency of the lately adopted platform and the general mutability of Democratic principles at the Court House on the 27th inst.

SPEAKING.—Members of the respective parties will bear in mind that the rival candidates for Congress, from this State, Hon Jos G Wilson, Republican and John Burnett, [illegible] Democrat will address their fellow constituents at the Court House this evening on the political issues of the day.

BARKENTINE AMELIA.—This bark Hoye [illegible], reached this port yesterday from San Francisco. The Amelia sailed from the latter port on the 5th of last month. Strong [illegible] gales were experienced from the bay to the bar. Her list of consignees will be found in its appropriate head.

WAITING ROOMS.—A correspondent suggests that waiting rooms should be erected convenient to the wharves along the city where passenger boats touch. Persons who are compelled to wait some time for the arrival and departure of boats would appreciate an innovation of this character.

PERSONAL.—Mr Walter Jackson of the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company, Salem, left for San Francisco on the [illegible]. He takes with him a large quantity of woolen goods. We learn that the company is about to establish a branch house at San Francisco.

SOLEMN MASS.—To-morrow morning a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated at the Catholic Church for the repose of the soul of the late Mrs Honora O'Neil, mother of Mr John [illegible] Neil of this city who departed this life in Boston on the 27th of last February.

BOILER.—A large boiler and fixtures was brought up on the bark [illegible]. It is for the Portland Water Works and will be used in connection with the machinery for [illegible] the river water to the reservoirs during the [illegible] the year.

BURGLARS.—Saturday night the bakery of W Dellinger & Co on Washington street was entered by burglars. The [illegible] pants and $4 [illegible] the circulating medium they could find.

TIME OF DEPARTURE.—[illegible] to the advertising column will show that the steamship [illegible] due here from San Francisco on Tuesday will sail on the 20th inst.

RAILS.—Fifteen hundred rails for the Oregon and California Railroad Company were brought up on the barkentine Amelia which reached this port yesterday.

TOWED DOWN.—The brig Brewster was towed down the river yesterday by the tug boat [illegible]. She took away a large cargo [illegible]

The Turn Vereins would increase their membership if they would engage a hall for practice in a more central location.

The mails and passengers by the Oregon and California Railroad are carried thirty miles beyond Eugene by construction trains.

Geo H Smith lectured before the members of the Wallamet Society on Saturday evening on the subject of "Want of Individuality in Americans."

M P Bull, publisher and proprietor of the old [illegible] Commercial goes to La Grande this morning to revive the Mountain Democrat at that place.

The Sunday school concert yesterday at the Methodist Church, East Portland, was largely attended by people from this side. Mr J F Caples spoke on the occasion.

We will be without Eastern mails for a while as there has been more snow blockades on the Central and Union Pacific Railroads. Mails, however may be anticipated all this week.

Great excitement at the corner of Washington and First streets on Saturday. A large eager crowd collected—to see a terrier dispatch a rat. The rodent won't trouble cheese any more.

There is some talk that "Minnie Myrtle" Miller will go East soon on a lecturing tour. Americans are blessed with an abundance of lecturers. The people ought to be well informed on all subjects.

AMUSEMENTS.

BALLS.—The Emmet Guard will give their first calico ball on Tuesday, April 23d, at Philharmonic Hall. The Montgomery Guard give their first annual ball at Armory Hall next Wednesday, April 17th.

DRAMATIC.—"Jack Long" and "Taming the Shrew" were produced in good style at Oro Fino Theater on last Saturday evening. A crowded house attended. The same bill is to be offered to night. To-morrow evening Mrs G B Waldron will take her first complimentary benefit. On that occasion "The Pet of the Petticoat," and "Puddlefoot" will be offered.

GEORGE PAUNCEFORT.—Of this Shakesperian reader, well known in this city, the following notice appears in the Honolulu Commercial Advertiser: "From Lahaina we hear that Mr Pauncefort had given two very satisfactory readings to good audiences, one at the Court House the other at the school of the Sisters of Mercy. The latter was described as a very interesting occasion. The life of little Paul Dombey was presented and the attention of the children (both young and of riper years) was engrossed. The school room was admirably arranged for the purpose, the raised portion as a drawing room. Mr Pauncefort would proceed to Wailuku from Lahaina."

DANIEL L PARSONS.—This gentleman, who was among the passengers on board the steamship Oriflamme on her last upward voyage, died at the American Exchange Hotel on last Friday evening, of strangulated hernia. He had been troubled of late years with a rupture, but on his overland trip to California had so improved that he neglected to wear a truss when he took passage on the Oriflamme for Portland. On the voyage he suffered greatly from sea nausea. This so aggravated his disorder that when he reached here it was thought necessary to perform a surgical operation to relieve him from his critical condition. Having suffered a great deal, and being prostrated from weakness, he did not survive the necessary operation but a few hours.

Deceased was a native of Virginia, and at the time of his death was aged 33 years. He came to this state with a view of taking up a permanent residence in Linn county. Ascertaining that he was a member of Wilson Lodge No 223 A F & A M of Grayson county, Virginia the brethren of that order in this city took possession of the body. His remains were interred in the Lone Fir Cemetery yesterday under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, and with the usual solemn and impressive rites of the order. The members of Willamette and Harmony Lodges in Portland and of Washington Lodge in East Portland joined in the funeral cortege and marched to the burial ground. Mr Parsons leaves a wife and four children. These will be provided for by the order and sent to their destination.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—On Saturday at 6 o'clock P M the steamship Oriflamme sailed for the above port. The following passengers took their departure: Gov Geo Abernethy and wife, Mrs Duncan and 2 children, Dwight Needham, J P Mattingly and wife, Chas Kane, L Newman, H P Gregory, W G Dunlap, R F DeRussey and wife, Max Voght, I S Rosenbaum, wife, servant and 4 children, P J Martin, Rev [illegible] Fisher, Miss H Rosenburg, Seldon Ogle, J Alexander, A J Watson and wife, J W Miller, D D Mrs A Fisher, Chas Goodnough, Mrs H J Coon, Eva Ogle, R H Wren, wife and 2 children, Mrs [illegible] Fletcher, Mrs E Hicks and 2 infants, Mrs W F White and 2 infants, Mrs H L Ballard, servant and child, W M Meacham, wife and 4 children, Miss Meacham, John Barrett, P Quarrero, O W Burrell, E T Colby and wife, Capt A T Sprague and servant, E P Fitzgerald, E Bates, J Brumer, Miss L Galagher, [illegible] Penlope, wife and 2 children, Mrs M E Strowbull, T Sedle, Amos D Hyland, Thos J Clem, A D Shakspeare and wife, John Thompson, W Sheld[illegible], W J Smith, E A Hawes, Eddy Pye, Miss Nellie McIntyre, Walter Jackson, J W Smith, Henry H [illegible], [illegible] C W Vandzen, J W Carr, W F [illegible] & Co [illegible] and 40 in steerage.

ON HIS TRAIL.—Some days since the Salem Statesman contained an account when a young man had married near that place and left his wife the next day. It was indicated in the same paragraph that the fleeing gentleman had directed his feet towards this city. Two of his [illegible], a brother of his deserted wife and a companion to himself, came down in search yesterday. From the description given the truant husband was in the city but a few days ago, but again disappeared from public view. There seems to be some strange mystery about his elopement. He left his wife the second day after the marriage and promised to return soon. Just before going he gave her a purse containing $300 and said he would be back that evening. He came to Salem and took the cars for Portland. Those in search of him had been unrewarded in their efforts when last heard from. We live in a strange world and many strange things occur.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Yesterday afternoon a report was rife on the streets that a man had mysteriously disappeared from view, and that there existed circumstances which led to a well founded belief that there was some foul play at the bottom of the affair. We have endeavored to learn all the particulars connected with the as yet mystery, and have been placed in possession of the following facts: On last Friday a man named William Alexander, who had been engaged for some months at the brickyard of T M Richardson, adjacent to the city, came to town. He remained until Saturday evening when it is said he was observed to be a little in liquor. This was a rather uncommon occurrence, as he sustained a character for sobriety and order. It was also said that he had stated in the presence of several bystanders that he had drawn or was intending to draw, $650 from the bank which was there on deposit for him. With this sum he intended to pay off his debts and send the remainder to his children over on the Sound. Early yesterday morning officer Sharpe discovered traces of blood down on Captain Flanders' wharf, near where it joins the Willamette Transportation Company's wharf. Pools of blood were found. The officer also found several letters, leaves torn from an old memorandum book and some photographs. Carefully inspecting these traces he discovered where a body of something had been dragged to the outer edge of the wharf. At the edge was the end of a pile which had been sawed down level with the wharf. On this a quantity of blood was literally smeared. The officer gathered up the fragments of the papers and reported what he had seen at the headquarters of the police. An investigation was at once instituted. About this time it was reported that Alexander had disappeared and could not be found. [illegible] search was at once made for him. The leaves of the old pocketbook were scrutinized and it was soon evident that the papers belonged to the missing man and that he had been laboring for Richardson, as the numerous entries indicated.

Yesterday afternoon a number of persons were employed with boats, ropes and grappling irons searching the river at the place where it is supposed the body was thrown from the wharf. At the latest accounts no traces were discovered. Among the papers found was an insurance policy on which had been made a payment of $41 75. The missing man has been in the State about two years and was formerly in the employ of the railroad company. There can be no doubt from the indications that some foul murder has been perpetrated, but at present the affair is involved in mystery.

The police force are making every effort to trace the matter to a more definite and satisfactory result.

'TWAS EVEN THUS.—On last Saturday afternoon a large number of friends assembled at the St Mary's Cathedral to witness the impressive marriage ceremony performed there. The parties to this sacred concert were Miss Annie Richardson, daughter of A B Richardson Esq of this city and Mr J I Mattingly. As soon as the marriage vows were exchanged and the soft but strong ties which bound them as man and wife for time cemented the happy groom and blushing bride took passage on the Oriflamme for a bridal tour. Their many friends will unite in wishing them a prosperous voyage through life, a pathway strewn with flowers, and that many tender buds may expand to adorn the family circle and cheer with their beauty the dreariness of life's declining years.

THE TERRITORIES.

Good lumber is in great demand at Lewiston.

The freight on goods from Lewiston to Salmon river is four cents per pound.

The embankments thrown up by the Railroad Company along the Cowlitz river were much damaged in several places during the past winter.

The Bellingham Bay Company is progressing finely in pumping the water out of their mine, and it is thought they will commence taking out coal some time during this week.

The Olympia [illegible] says that the telegraph road between there and Mound Prairie is almost impassable from surface water. In many sags that have no outlet the water is up to the saddle skirts.

At Bullion City business in mining is looking up. Two experts from San Francisco have paid a visit to the South Mountain mines, and speak in high terms of them. The Golconda and Scandia are being worked.

The Deer Lodge Independent (Montana) of March 30th says that it learns from undoubted authority that the railroad has been located through Deer Lodge valley and city. Whether through the Deer Lodge or Pipe Stone Pass, we are not informed.

The following officers of the Vancouver Hibernian Society were elected last week: President, P. O'Keane; Vice President, M. Shea; Recording Secretary, John O'Keane; Corresponding Secretary, Patrick Cain; Treasurer, John McMullen.

The Messrs. Wilson, of Olympia, cast, on Monday, a pile driver hammer weighing 2,200 pounds, the heaviest casting by considerable ever made on the Sound. It was made for the railroad contractors. They are to make three more, one the same weight and two much heavier.

The Idaho Signal is informed that a visitor, who has examined the lands of the section north of Lewiston, in Idaho Territory, says that those who are desirous of finding good locations, and are hanging about Walla Walla, had better visit the country north of Lewiston, where they will find many choice locations.

The Puget Sound Courier, Olympia, of the 19th inst., says a party of Canadian railroad surveyors left Olympia last Wednesday for the Columbia river. They will go up the Columbia river to Wallula, thence to Colville and from there to Kootenai, where they propose to commence a line of surveys on the Canadian and British Columbia road.

At Pierce City the snow has nearly all disappeared, but back in the mines and at the head of the ditches it was from four to five feet in depth, and for about six miles on the road out of town, it was from two to four feet in depth. There are about eighty white men in camp and from four to five hundred Chinamen. Work in mining had commenced in good earnest.

The Cincinnati Convention—Where the Democratic Ship is Floundering to.

A Washington dispatch (March 30) to the New York Herald reveals some curious phases of the inside workings of the Republican-anti-Republican movement in connection with the Democracy. We give it as follows:

Mr. Belmont arrived here a few days ago, mainly for the purpose of consulting with the leading Democrats in Congress as to the time and place of holding the National Convention. About forty of the faithful Senators and Representatives met at Welaker's, where the subject was discussed without reaching any conclusion on either point. A call, however, for the meeting of the National Democratic Committee, of which Mr. Belmont is chairman, will be issued immediately, requesting them to meet in May when the Convention matter will be settled. Just now, three or four men are attempting to run the Democracy and the so-called Liberal Republicans. The Blairs, who ruined Fremont and killed Seymour, seem determined to be the engineers of destruction again. They have made a coalition with Schurz, by which, it is alleged, he agrees to transfer the German vote for a certain consideration, and the Blairs agree to transfer the Democracy solid. Both want to drive the best bargain possible, and to appropriate all the honors and profits to themselves, which are worth having. First, they want Gratz Brown nominated at Cincinnati because he is a first cousin of the Blairs, and the office of President would be in the family in the event of success. Failing that, then they are for Trumbull, with whom contingent arrangements have been made. They rather resist Davis, because he has refused to make any bargains, and despises the jobbery of politics in which these intriguers are engaged.

Belmont had a long talk with Schurz in the Senate this morning. Schurz, who is a transcendentalist, and knows but little of practical politics, begged him to call the Convention at an early day, so that the Democracy might be coerced into accepting the Cincinnati nomination, which he and Frank Blair might be determined to make. He said it was impossible to put Greeley on the ticket at Cincinnati, as had been proposed, but William M. Evarts would answer every purpose, and he intended to order the Germans to take him up.

Blair seems to have the main management of the Cincinnati machine here and really runs it, while letting Schurz believe he turns the crank. All this is very amusing. The Free Trade League keep the clerks in pay, and the franking is done at the Capitol by civil service reformers like Trumbull, Schurz and Fenton. That's the way we go in these parts.

Poor Trumbull is very much exercised about what to do. He wants Cincinnati to adjourn without a nomination and to pacify Philadelphia. Since Governor Warmouth has gone back he would like to return to the fold of the regular faith. But Blair says he must stick up to the contract, and shall not compromise. And Schurz, who does not want to be left alone, insists also, and, like Satan when he led the Saviour unto the mountain, promises him the White House if he will stand firm. Sumner is disgusted and has really quit the concern. He says if any man ought to be taken up at Cincinnati, he is that individual. Tipton is wandering about. So that three chaps here, and Frank Blair, with Montgomery and Judge Field, manage the concern.

Stirring Address by German Republicans.

The German Republican Central Committee of New York have issued a stirring address to the German Republicans of that city and State. It is so manly and straightforward that we cannot better fill the space it will occupy in our columns than to give it entire. It appears in New York papers, both German and English, of the 1st April:

To the German Republicans of New York:

Twenty men of this State published, last week, a declaration setting forth that they will join the enrolled Liberal Republicans of Missouri, and requesting the Republicans of New York to join the movement, and to participate in the Cincinnati Convention.

The German Republicans in New York who, since the formation of the party, have stood as a closed phalanx in its ranks to contend against all existing abuses, and to agitate in behalf of progress are performing a duty to warn against this action. The originators are mostly honest but misguided men, who commit the same faults over again they committed at the close of Abraham Lincoln's first term, by resorting to measures, in application to alleged abuses, which endangered the party which had to save and preserve, and did save and preserve the Union. The people refused at that time to listen to the counsels of these theoretics.

Among the ranks of these are many Republicans who, by dishonesty in office and office-hunting, have become disgusted with the party, because it is not able to realize the desires and wishes of all. Many of the opponents are men who make it a regular business to find fault with everything in existence and to find fault because it exists.

A successful organization of these malcontent elements, although not able to continue in existence would have sufficient power to do a considerable amount of damage. The Republican party has subdued the rebellion, and showed to the world the abolishment of the death penalty as the customary punishment for rebels. It has restored the Union and reduced the national debt, taxes and imposts have been reduced, and reforms in the civil service have been inaugurated.

No patriot should place the rudder of the ship of state in the hands of inexperienced men. German Republicans of New York, let us not be responsible for this. Desirable reforms may be accomplished in the party. The men whom we elect to carry out our desires and demands are the only legitimate representatives of the Republican party. At the meeting of the Republican delegates from all parts of the Union at Philadelphia, in June, the platform of the Republican party will be adopted, and the Republican candidates for the highest offices in the gift of the Republic nominated. We faithfully gather around the banner, which we uphold on the battle field and in the halls of the Legislature, and until after the next Presidential election we earnestly repudiate all attempts to cause a split in the party.

Their Record

A correspondent of the [illegible], giving a synopsis of Judge Boise's speech at Lafayette last Monday, says:

The Judge then proceeded to discuss the issues of our own State, and arraigned the last Democratic Legislature before the bar of public opinion. They had in direct violation of the State Constitution which they had sworn to support, increased the cost of State Government $5,000 a year, which in Grover's administration will amount to $40,000.

They had robbed the schools at $75,000 in the locks and canal arrangement, besides the $11,000 paid out of the Treasury annually as interest on the bonds given to the company.

They disposed of the swamp lands in such a manner, that they were seized by the members of the Legislature and the ring that controlled them, making no provision for those who had settled on such lands in good faith.

Under cover of an act to protect litigants, they robbed the people to the tune of $15,000 a year, three-fourths of which comes from widows and orphans out of the estates of their deceased relatives. Placing this fund virtually in the hands of Gov. Grover to control the political press of the State.

They had, in fact, after swearing to protect the property of the State, robbed it of everything that could be taken. These measures Gov. Grover approved and Senator Kelly helped to lobby through.

In order to pass these acts they had unscrupulously turned out Senators and Representatives elected by the people, putting in those who would vote for those schemes of plunder.

These points were ably presented by Judge Boise and argued forcibly and logically in his usual earnest and impressive style; giving proof for every allegation, and though without any rhetorical flourishes, often eloquent and always carrying the audience with him.

SUCCESS A DUTY.—I hold it to be a prime obligation resting on every man to succeed, up to the fullest measure of that success which is possible to him in life. Success is not only pleasant, it is a duty. Look at man along whatever range of faculties, and you will see in the perfect equipment of capacity, in the presence of every energy, the obligation to succeed. In the wings of a bird you see the Maker has suggested flight; in the build of a dog and a horse, speed; in the ox, strength. And so through all the grades of life, God, in the organization, in the capacities bestowed, has pointed out the mode and result of life. But in man this is most observable. Look at yourself, my friend, your faculties, in your endowments by nature, and see in the liberal, I had almost said, nay, I will say, in the superabundant resources of your organization, the suggestion, yea, the command of your Maker. All the elements and means necessary to success in any branch of worthy industry, in any line of noble ambition, are in you. A young man has no right to fail in life. It may not be his duty to succeed in the direction and to the extent that his ambition may suggest; for ignorance may misdirect and vanity exaggerate; but it is his duty to succeed in the direction, and to that extent, in which his natural capacities point and make possible. Society is full of failures that need never have been made; full of men who have never succeeded, when they might have, and should have succeeded; full of women, who, in the first half of their days, did nothing but eat, drink and simper, and in the last half have done nothing but repent their follies and weakness. The world is full, I say, of such people; full of men, in every trade or profession, who do not do anything, and of girls and women, without any trade or profession, who have no desire to amount to anything; and I do not speak irreverently, and I trust not without charity, without making due allowance for the inevitable in life, when I say that God and thoughtful men are weary of their presence.

A Western editor, during the late frozen period, thus accounts for the dearth of local news in his paper. "Our reporter started out this afternoon in search of local items. After an unusually long absence he returned, but, alas! in a most deplorable condition—frozen stiff as a poker and minus one ear. We stood him up against the wall behind the stove, and ordered the 'devil' to pile on the fuel. We finally succeeded in prying his mouth open with the ash shovel, when a dozen or so of words fell out upon the floor and broke into pieces. We set the 'devil' at work putting the pieces together, and he finally reported the following as the result of his labor 'Coldest day of the season, everything froze stiff, saloon keepers selling hot whiskies by the stick.'"

How happy is boyhood, which scarcely looks ten minutes ahead toward the dark uncertain future. Who does not envy the blissful composure of the little fellow who, after watching the burning of the school house, until the novelty of the thing had ceased, started down the street saying, "I'm glad the old thing is burned down, I didn't have my jography lesson no how."

Now that the Omaha bridge over the Missouri is complete, there is an unbroken line of rail from Oakland, Cal., to Boston 3,530 miles, and even a further distance down in Maine, counting up in all probably 4,000.

A man having announced that he wanted to marry a girl, "with plenty of snap in her," the La Crosse Leader advises him to "go for the Wisconsin girl who swallowed forty percussion caps the other week."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, April 13, 1872.

Gold in New York, 110¼.

Greenbacks, 88½ buying, and 91½ selling.

During the week closing to-day, large lines of goods of nearly all descriptions have been in motion. So far this season, sales show a large increase on those of last year.

The bark Amelia has arrived from San Francisco. She brings 800 tons of merchandise—list of consignees below.

The bark Almy, with assorted cargo, is in the river and will probably be up on Monday.

The cargo of the brig Brewster has been completed. She will sail for San Francisco on Monday.

The Sparkling Dew was hauled over the river to Flanders's wharf to-day. She will soon be ready to receive a cargo of wheat for the United Kingdom.

The Steamer Oriflamme, with passengers and freight for San Francisco, sailed this evening at 6 o'clock. Her freight list will be found below.

Due here from San Francisco, barks H. W. Almy and Amelia—both with large assorted cargoes.

Paints, prices unchanged. Wines and liquors, canned goods, jobbing at agents' rates. Oregon woolen goods, market stiff and firm, with prospect of advance.

In wool prices still tend upward. We have heard of offers as high as 5½c per pound, in some sections of the State, but this is more than is usually offered. The average price may be stated at 30 to 32c.

The steamer Oriflamme which sailed for San Francisco this afternoon took the following freight: 188 pkgs assorted mdse, 1,438 bxs apples, 24 kegs beer, 10 sacks onions, 400 half sacks flour, 10,778 quarter sacks flour, 298 cases mdse, 70 boxes eggs.

In the tariff debate in the Senate a few days ago Mr Cole of California strongly urged a reduction of duty on rice. A large majority, however, sided with the South Carolina protectionists, who argued that the only interest the inhabitants of California can have in the price of rice is as an article of food for the Chinese, who pay scarcely any other tax. Sawyer added "When the inhabitants of California show that they can treat the Chinese with ordinary humanity, which we are extending not only to our own citizens elsewhere but to the Indians, it seems to me it will be time enough for us to try to save half a cent a pound on rice."

It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore careful [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible], about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] rily to him that the was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who [illegible] certificates dupe the unwary [illegible] self-styled doctors, whose names are [illegible] in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco [illegible] other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are ignorant [illegible] make newspaper reporters. Intelligence office keepers, [illegible] Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will find [illegible] not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid impositions is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets.
